TO-DAY'S GAMES. Columbus at Wheeling.
Toledo at Youngstown.
Dayton at New Castle.
Fort Wayne at Mansfield.

The game yesterday between the erray from Columbus and the Wheelingites was not marked by any brilliant playing, taken as a whole, and the small crowd that witnessed the insipid playing of the visitors were never sufficiently edified to give up a cheer of any magnitude, nor at any time were they so thoroughly disgusted as to emit a groan.

The features of the game were the saffron-hued decision of a new umpire, with the unfamiliar name of Davis, and the wearing of a shirt with the insignia "Wheeling" across; his manly signia. Wheeling across of many breast by Quinn, the new manager of the Columbus team. He was 't peatedly asked to take off "that there shirt." but he bore the "kiddin" with the heroic valor of a base ball Trojan.

Streit, who twirled the pigskin for the Columbus team, did well until he became disheartened by the ranged fielding of his aggregation, and then 1-1 down and gave the weary spectators an exhibition of two-old-cat. Poole was not as effective as usual, although he struck out a sufficient number to retain his place as one of the leading pitchers of the league, not counting the number of rank decisions im-posed upon him by Col. Davis of, Davisville. The spectators who root, shouted to make it sixteen to onbut contrary to Democratic principles the festive athletes reduced the ratio to thirteen to two and there was a general wall along the entire line of bleech

The fun started by Meansy getting to first on balls, who was advanced by Congalton's sacrifice. Lyons went out on a sacrifice, and Turner, bit for two bags, scoring Meaney and Congalton. Pequinney struck out, and Pothermel got to first on balls, and was followed by Boyd in the same manner, and Turner scored. Pools went out to first.

The Columbus team then took the stick and Williams went out on a foul, Robinson lifted the ball over into center to Congalton and Bradley filed to Mea-

In the second inning, Meanny made a two base hit and Congalton struck out. Lyons put one up in the air, which was bagged and Meaney scored. Tom Turflied to left field.

McCann got to third on a passed bad, and O'Connor went out at first. Richter made first on balls, but was caught in trying to steal second. Bellville could not get to first in time.

In the third Taylor went out at first, Pequinney followed in Fame manner, and Rothermel flied to center.

McAllister made it to first and Streit fouled out. Williams hit a two-bagger and Robinson struck out. Bradley file ! to Rothermel.

In the fourth Boyd made a clean drive through second, but got only to first Poole flied to center. Meaney and Congalton failed to get to first,

McCann fouled an out to deep left O'Connor hit to deep center and caught the second base, Richter went to first on balls, and Belville went out on an infield fly. McAtlister got to first and Richter was caught on second.
